Annual report

Year 2010-2011

Name of the program: Girls Education Program

Agency: Room to Read, New Delhi

Purpose: To provide support to girls those who are not having access to education & finds difficulties to continue their education due to the poor economical status of the family. We also supported selected girl children families for better living conditions by linking them to government social security schemes. The expected outcome of the intervention was that the selected girls would clear their exams without any hurdle and this will lead towards better future options for higher education and employment opportunities to realise their dreams.

Activity: Under the given program in 2010-11, the organization distributed educational materials such as uniforms, school bags, pens, books, sweater and Stationery etc. to 208 girl students. For high-quality education PGVS established “education center” at village level. The organization also developed total 5 centers in 5 villages. The centers supported by one teacher appointed in each village. In the center students were encouraged to discuss about each subject with solution of questions regarding studies. The organization supported for admission fees & Examination Fees to 86 girls. Training on ‘Life Skill’ was held in 2010. The main objectives of the workshop was to develop understanding on various acts like right to education, Child Right, constitution, Gender, Panchayati Raj, health etc. Health Checkup camp were organized by PGVS. In this camp total 208 students were participated. Exposure visit is one of the important activities in this program. Children day program, program review, meeting with parents, field/house visit, meeting with teachers was our regular program we was done successfully.
